1. What is difference between a “certified” and an “uncertified” copy of a termination of domestic partnership?

A certified copy of a termination of domestic partnership issued by the Local Vital Records Office will have a raised seal, will show the signature of the Local Registrar, and will be printed on security paper. A certified copy may be required to enter into another domestic partnership.

State law restricts who may obtain a certified copy of a termination of domestic partnership. A certified copy can only be issued to those people with a “direct and tangible interest” (section II, categories A – E) which means the following people:

- One of the partners named on the termination of domestic partnership (section II, category A).
- An immediate family member defined as a parent (whose name is on one of the partner’s birth certificate and whose parental rights have not been terminated), brother, sister, grandparent, or child of the subject of the record (section II, category B).
- NOTE: Grandchildren, step-parents, step-children, step-brothers and step-sisters can only obtain certified copies as section II, categories C – E..
- The legal guardian of a partner named on the termination of domestic partnership. Legal proof, e.g., a court order of guardianship, is required. (section II, category C).
- A person authorized in writing by one of the above. A written and notarized authorization must be attached to this application and the authorization must clearly state the relationship of the authorizing party to the subject of the record (section II, category D).
- A person who can demonstrate that the termination of domestic partnership is required to determine or to protect a personal or property right (section II, category E). Proof is required.

If you do not meet one of the above criteria, you cannot receive a certified copy of a termination of domestic partnership.

An uncertified copy will contain the same information as a certified copy but it is not acceptable for legal purposes. (section II, category F)

2. How long will it take to process my request?

Copies of termination of domestic partnerships are available from the Local Vital Records Office no less than 3 weeks from the date of the event.

- Applying in Person
 - Requests for certified copies of termination of domestic partnerships are completed while you wait, if the termination of domestic partnership is on file.
 - Requests for uncertified copies of termination of domestic partnerships are completed on the same schedule as requests for certified copies.
- Applying by Mail
 - Requests for certified copies of termination of domestic partnerships are completed within 1 business day plus mail time.
