

Can you help us get started with our Lake Management plan?

Yes. Staff persons at the Land and Water Conservation Department would be happy to meet with your group and talk about how to get a lake management plan moving forward. We are knowledgeable about the process, can answer most of the questions you may have, show you examples of finished plans, and hand you written materials that will make the project easier for you.